43. Defendants breached their fiduciary duties in one or more of the following ways:
  - a) by engaging in a continuous pattern of self-dealing and acted in concert to withhold incriminating information from Church membership;

  - c) by removing members of the Church without cause in furtherance of the above-referenced fraudulent scheme.
44. The aforementioned breaches of fiduciary duties caused substantial loss and injury to the Church by depleting its financial assets and fostering a toxic environment for Church membership.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Richard White and Sherman Hawthorne pray for damages from Defendants Rising Star M.B. Church, Ernest Garrett Jr. and each individual member of the Board of Deacons, jointly and severally, for such sum as is just and proper to compensate Plaintiffs for said breaches of fiduciary duties, in an amount greater than $25,000.00, and, because Defendants

50. Defendants did in fact engage in a pattern of self-dealing by using Church funds to pay personal expenses.

51. Defendants did in fact engage in conduct which both violated their duties and obligations set forth in the Bylaws and prevented Church membership from exercising their rights within the Church.

52. Such actions of Defendants were a breach of their obligations to perform their duties as agents/officers in good faith and with proper care directed to the best interests of the Church, and/or constituted a breach of their fiduciary duties of care and loyalty to the Church.

53. Such actions of Defendants constitute a material breach of the Church Bylaws.

54. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiffs have been damaged and deprived the benefit of their membership with Defendant Rising Star.

55. As a further result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiffs no longer have confidence in the moral integrity of Church agents/officers and have been subjected to a toxic environment created by Defendants.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Richard White and Sherman Hawthorne pray that this Court make and enter judgment in their favor and against Defendants Rising Star M.B. Church, Ernest Garrett Jr. and each individual member of the Board of Deacons, jointly and severally, for such sum as is just and proper to compensate Plaintiffs, in an amount greater than $25,000.00, and, because Defendants intentionally acted to harm the Plaintiffs without just cause, for punitive damages to deter future similar conduct, for recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred by Plaintiffs, and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

57. Defendants, through their actions as a continuing and cohesive unit, engaged in the activities of an enterprise engaged in interstate commerce, as defined by 18 U.S.C. §1961(4) (“Enterprise”). The Enterprise went by no specific name, but the parties to the Enterprise acted as a continuing and cohesive unit with the intent to engage in a fraudulent scheme.

58. Pursuant to, and in furtherance of their fraudulent scheme, Defendants committed multiple related acts of racketeering, namely:

- a) engaging in continuous and persistent self-dealing;
- b) using Defendant Rising Star as a means of laundering money from Church membership to Defendants Garrett and Board of Deacons; and
- c) retaliating against witnesses to the aforementioned racketeering conduct.

59. The actions of Defendants as set forth above constitute a pattern of racketeering activity pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1961(5).

60. Section 1962(c) makes it unlawful to “conduct or participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of an enterprise” and to “conduct such enterprise’s affairs through a pattern of racketeering activity.” 18 U.S.C. §1962(c).

- c) benefit the Enterprise as a whole by allowing Defendants to collectively domineer a non-profit organization through a fraudulent scheme for their financial benefit and personal gain.

63. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' racketeering activities and violations of 18 U.S.C. §1962(c), Plaintiffs and other Church members have suffered financial injury, an inability to trust Church leadership, and have been subjected to a toxic and retaliatory environment.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Richard White and Sherman Hawthorne pray that this Court make and enter judgment in their favor and against Defendants Rising Star M.B. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Richard White and Sherman Hawthorne pray that this Court make and enter judgment in their favor and against Defendants Rising Star M.B. Church, Ernest Garrett Jr. and each individual member of the Board of Deacons, jointly and severally, for such sum as is just and proper to compensate Plaintiffs, including actual damages, treble damages, and, because Defendants intentionally acted to harm the Plaintiffs without just cause, for punitive damages to deter future similar conduct, for recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred by Plaintiffs, and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

COUNT VII – VIOLATION OF RICO SECTION 1962(d)
Defendants Rising Star, Garrett and Board of Deacons

COME NOW, Plaintiffs Richard White and Sherman Hawthorne, and for Count VII of their cause of action against Defendants Rising Star M.B. Church, Garrett and Board of Deacons state as follows:

69. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate herein by reference paragraphs 1-27, 56-63, and 64-68, the same as if fully set forth herein.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Richard White and Sherman Hawthorne pray that this Court make and enter judgment in their favor and against Defendants Rising Star M.B. Church, Ernest Garrett Jr. and each individual member of the Board of Deacons, jointly and severally, for such sum as is just and proper to compensate Plaintiffs, including actual damages, treble damages, and, because Defendants intentionally acted to harm the Plaintiffs without just cause, for punitive damages to deter future similar conduct, for recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred by

BY-LAWS
PROPOSED BY THE BOARD OF DEACONS
OF RISING STAR M. B. CHURCH

Article I Principal Office

The principal office of the Church in the State of Missouri shall be located in St. Louis, Missouri. The Church may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Missouri, as the business of the Church may require from time to time.

Article II Members

Section 1. Annual Meetings: The membership of the Church shall have an annual meeting on the fourth Saturday of March of each year. The Chairman of the Board of Deacons and the Treasurer shall report on the activities and financial condition of the Church.

Section 2. Special Meetings: The membership of the Church may meet at any other time that the Pastor, or the Board of Deacons may determine to be appropriate. Other than for admission, reinstatement or removal of a member of the Church, no meeting of the membership is required to transact the daily business of the Church.

Section 2. Place of Meeting: The Pastor or the Board of Deacons may designate any place, either within or without the State of Missouri, as the place for any meeting of the membership. If no designation is made, the place of meeting shall be the Rising Star M.B. Church at 3424 - 26 LaSalle Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings: The membership of the Church shall be notified of any meeting, annual or special, verbally or by written notice by the Pastor or by the Board of Deacons. Due to the fact that most members regularly participate in Sunday services, the fairest and most reasonable announcements of the meetings shall be made at the Church on the Sunday two (2) weeks before the date of the meeting. No prior notice of a meeting of the membership shall be necessary to vote on the admission, reinstatement or removal of a member of the Church.

Section 4. Quorum: There is no mandatory quorum of the membership necessary to vote on the admission, reinstatement or removal of a member of the Church. Ten percent of the membership shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for any other purpose.

Section 6. Voting: Each adult member, 18 years or older, attending a meeting shall be entitled to one vote. If any proposition is submitted to the membership for a vote, the side with the majority of votes cast shall win and that decision will constitute a valid act of the whole membership. Voice voting by the membership is permissible.

Section 7. Membership: The Pastor, or in the absence of a Pastor, the Board of Deacons, shall determine the qualifications of a member of the Church, for purposes of admission, reinstatement or removal. These individuals shall have their names submitted to the entire membership, at a Sunday service, for a vote on the membership's approval of admitting, readmitting or removal of them as members of the Church. In the event the Pastor or the Board of Deacons shall determine that a member is no longer a suitable person to be a member of the Church, written notice of the intent to submit the members name to the membership for removal shall be given to that member at least one (1) week before the issue shall be presented to the membership for vote.

The Pastor, or in the absence of a Pastor, the Board of Deacons, shall periodically review the roster of the members of the Church to remove such individuals who are no longer qualified to be members of the Church; who are inactive in the affairs of the Church or who have joined other churches. In the event the Pastor, or in the absence of a Pastor, the Board of Deacons determines that an individual no longer is qualified to be a member of the Church, a majority vote by the members present at a regular Sunday service shall be required to remove an individual as a member.

Article III Board of Deacons

Section 1. General Powers: The business and affairs of the Church shall be managed by its Board of Deacons. The Deacons shall be appointed by the Pastor and shall serve until such time as the Pastor, or in the absence of a Pastor, the Board of Deacons, shall determine to be appropriate.

Section 2. Number, Tenure: The number of Deacons of the Church shall be fourteen, or such other number as the membership shall determine. Due to the fact that those Deacons currently serving as Deacons at the time of the adoption of these by-laws were appointed by previous Pastors, they shall continue to serve as Deacons.

Section 3. Meetings: The Board of Deacons shall meet on the 3rd Saturday of each month. Additional meetings of the Board of Deacons may be called by or at the request of the Pastor or any two Deacons. The person or persons authorized to call a meeting of the Board of Deacons may fix any place in the United States, either within or without the State of Missouri, as the place for holding any meetings of the Board of Deacons called by them. No regular time must be established for the additional meetings and the meetings may be held at any time called for by the Pastor or any two members of the Board of Deacons.

Section 4. Notice: The Chairman of the Board of Deacons shall notify the members of the Board, either verbally, by personal contact, or by written notice, within a reasonable time period in advance of the meeting, as determined by the circumstances, of any meeting of the Board of Deacons.

Section 5. Quorums: A majority of the Board of Deacons shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Deacons, provided that if less than a majority of the Deacons are present at said meeting, a majority of the Deacons may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 6. Manner of Acting: The act of the majority of the Deacons present at a meeting of the Deacons at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Deacons.

Section 7. Vacancies: In case of death or resignation or disqualification of one or more of the Deacons, the Pastor may fill such vacancy or vacancies.

Section 8. Compensation: Deacons as such shall not receive any salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Deacons a fixed sum for expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any meeting of the Board of Deacons.

Article IV Officers

Section 1. Number: The offices of the Church shall be a Pastor, a Secretary-Treasurer, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer and such other officers as may be elected in accordance with the provisions of this article.

All officers and agents of the Church, as between themselves and the Church, shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the property and affairs of the Church as may be provided in the by-laws, or in the absence of such provision, as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Deacons.

Section 2. Election and Term: The Board of Deacons shall elect the officers of the Church, except the Pastor. Vacancies may be filled at any meeting of the Board of Deacons. Each officer shall hold office until his or her successor shall have been duly elected or until his or her death or until he or she shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 3. Removal: Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Deacons may be removed by the Board of Deacons whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Church would be served thereby.

Section 4. Pastor: The Pastor shall be the principal executive officer of the Church and shall in general preside at all meetings of the membership; and in general shall perform all duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Deacons from time to time.

The Board of Deacons shall recommend to the membership the name of the Pastor. The membership shall elect the Pastor, by a majority vote at which a quorum is present. Notice of the vote on a Pastor shall be given verbally to the membership at the two (2) regularly Sunday services prior to the vote.

Section 5. The Secretary-Treasurer: If required by the Board of Deacons, the Secretary-Treasurer shall give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Deacons shall determine.
